

ERIC MCELVENNY
Inspire

INTRODUCTION

Our speaker today embodies resilience and inspires us to conquer challenges. After losing his leg while serving as a Marine in Afghanistan, Eric's journey took him to the finish line of the Ironman World Championships. He went on to represent the United States as a two-time Paralympian and now motivates others as an athlete and motivational speaker. Today, he will share a path through adversity, offering valuable lessons on resilience.

When not training or speaking, he enjoys time with his wife and kids in Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania.

Please welcome Eric McElvenny (Mack – ole – venny) !
